

I4MS Contact Points take full advantage of the digital opportunities and establish business-friendly framework conditions thanks to a deep understanding of the digital transformation in the European manufacturing landscape.

Become a part of an exclusive community and transfer in an effective manner the opportunities offered by I4MS to your stakeholders network. We're looking for representatives from Innovation Actions, Digital Innovation Hubs, Competence Centres and other relevant profiles that can help us disseminate the I4MS messages.

What does it mean to become a Contact Point?

-  Be formally linked to I4MS initiative to replicate solutions and services.
-  Connect with key stakeholders of the industry 4.0 European ecosystem.
-  Have access to first-hand information about digital transformation, trending topics and funding opportunities.
-  Participate in the I4MS online community.
